It is hereby stipulated and agreed between plaintiff, United States of America, and defendant, Lenore Thur, that the Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision approved by the Court on December 13, 2005, may be dismissed and the initial appearance scheduled for February 16, 2006, may be vacated.

The petition alleges that Ms. Thur, after receiving an insurance settlement, loaned some of the money to her boyfriend without obtaining advance approval of the court to make the loan. The petition noted that Ms. Thur had paid $2,600 towards a restitution obligation of $22,710.44.

Both before and after the petition was filed, Ms. Thur recovered much of the money she loaned to her boyfriend and paid it towards restitution, having been asked to do so by her probation officer. On January 26, 2006, the supervising officer in Sacramento telephoned the parties to suggest that they stipulate to dismiss the petition. Ms. Thur has paid at least $5,600 towards the restitution, an average of nearly $500 per month. The probation office reports that it is satisfied with Ms. Thur's substantial progress under supervision and that supervision, which was scheduled to expire on January 5, 2006, may be allowed to terminate.

Ms. Thur was sentenced to the maximum supervised release term of 12 months. Defense counsel has advised her that she remains obligated to pay restitution jointly and severally with her co-defendant, William Bond.

Accordingly, the parties agree that the petition should be dismissed and the appearance scheduled for February 16, 2006, should be vacated.

Respectfully submitted,

DENNIS S. WAKS
Acting Federal Defender
